DOOH for NGOs

Real-world media for real-world impact

We partner with non-profit organizations to deliver high-visibility, brand-safe campaigns in physical spaces, helping NGOs drive awareness, engagement, and action beyond the digital feed.

What is Airvolt?

Airvolt is a real-world media network designed for clarity, trust, and measurable outcomes.

We help mission-driven organizations reach people where attention is present - in the physical world - with campaigns that are respectful, accountable, and effective.

Brand-safe, real-world media that delivers verified reach.

How NGOs use Airvolt

We find ourselves at the convergence of:

- Awareness & public education campaigns
- Fundraising & donation activation
- Volunteer recruitment
- Event & day-of-action amplification
- Sponsor-funded or co-branded initiatives
- Coalition & multi-NGO campaigns

Turn real-world attention into awareness, engagement, and action, at scale and with measurable impact.

Why NGOs choose Airvolt

Mission-aligned placements

Carefully selected environments that respect context and audience.

Local precision

City-level and zone-based targeting to support grassroots or national efforts.

Fast activation

Ideal for urgent campaigns, policy moments, and time-sensitive initiatives.

Clear reporting

Post-campaign summaries suitable for boards, donors, and partners.

Airvolt gives NGOs mission-safe reach, local control, speed, and measurable accountability.

Our Partnership Models

The Airvolt AMPS units are civic assets with a built-in economic engine. They clean the air, gather vital data, and generate revenue, creating a self-sustaining network for healthier cities.

- ✓ Pro-bono inventory (limited, impact-driven cases)
- ✓ Discounted NGO rates
- ✓ Sponsor-matched campaigns
- ✓ Coalition & multi-NGO campaigns
